

CHAPTER 320.

AN ACT to repeal and re-enact, with amendments, Section 132 of Chapter 233 of the Acts of the General Assembly of Maryland, Session of 1927, said section being designated as Section 203 of Article 16 of the Public Local Laws of Maryland, title "Montgomery County," sub-title "County Treasurer," in the codification of said Public Local Laws of Maryland, edited by Horace E. Flack, under the provisions of Chapter 193 of the Acts of the General Assembly of Maryland, Session of 1929; so as to provide for the appointment, bond, duties and compensation of two Assistant Treasurers and other clerks; to provide for the keeping of the collection books of the Treasurer in complete accord with the assessment books in the office of the Board of County Commissioners.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Section 132 of Chapter 233 of the Acts of the General Assembly of Maryland, Session of 1927, said section being designated as Section 203 of Article 16 of the Public Local Laws of Maryland, title "Montgomery County," sub-title "County Treasurer," in the codification of said Public Local Laws of Maryland, edited by Horace E. Flack, under the provisions of Chapter 193 of the Acts of the General Assembly of Maryland, Session of 1929, be and the said section is hereby repealed and re-enacted to read as follows:

203. The Board of County Commissioners of Montgomery County, upon the recommendation of the Treasurer, shall appoint two assistant treasurers at annual salaries of twenty-one hundred dollars ($2,100.00) and eighteen hundred dollars ($1,800.00) each, payable in equal monthly installments, and shall furnish such additional clerks and assistants at such compensation as the Board of County Commissioners may, in its discretion, deem necessary, and all assistants and all clerks so appointed shall take the oath of office prescribed by the Constitution of this State and shall execute such bond or bonds as the Board of County Commissioners may require, premiums on said bonds to be levied for and paid out of county funds by the Board of County Commissioners. The assistant treasurer or treasurers so appointed, or either of them, shall, upon the written authority of the Treasurer, do and perform any act or acts which can be legally performed
